Klein Tool 89552

I don’t know if you are familiar with this Klein Tool 89552 but it is the bomb for cutting lightening holes, and can also cut through steel. I just finished cutting the holes in the aft upper deck, it was quick and easy after a trial run on a scrap piece of .040 T3. About $50 on Amazon.

Cheers,
Dean

(My apologies for the second email blast following so soon. I somehow omitted these items from yesterday's newsletter. In my defense, it was getting late when I sent it out... and I'm getting old. Oops. - Vince)
